

Our Vision
(The Future We See)

Adyapeath, USA
(Adya Maa's Place of Worship) will be a great place of worship, tolerance and universal acceptance, of great harmony of all races, religions and faiths, a place where Maa's devotees will feel another home outside of their own home to experience divinity, peace and harmony that help them towards the path of liberation.

Our Mission – Service to Mankind
(What We Do)

Our Guiding Principles

Our Beliefs

All human beings are divine and sons and daughters of same Mother (Annada Thakur)

Love is the foremost virtue and the clearest path to God. Treat all work as worship, and service to others as service to God

Every human being has potential divinity which can be manifested through every action and thought

Our Values

What we do today as service to community are based on the 5 PILLARS mentioned above

Our decisions are based on what is best for our members and devotees

We expect excellence in what we do to serve our community, members and devotees
